SOLDIER IN TRUNK GIVEN FIVE MONTHS.

Pte. William Howard Attempted to Desert From the 146th.

Pte. William Howard, of the 146th Battalion, was discovered in a trunk in a house on Ontario street by the military police Saturday morning, and was arraigned Monday before Magistrates Hunter and W. J. Ruttan, R. R. No. 1, Kingston, on the charge of being absent without leave and of attempting to escape, and was found guilty and given five months in jail.

Howard received a pass to visit his wife, who is ill, and failed to return. He discarded his military clothes, which were found in an alleyway.

When the police were seen approaching the house some one locked Howard in a trunk.
