

Bradford and District Heroes.

GALLANT DUTY IN THE GREAT CONFLICT.

ALFRED D. Priddy, J. Sherwood Forester, of 11, Bannockburn, Bradford, is a hospital in the Bradford Convalescent Home. He was wounded in the first world war. He was 19 years of age, and previous to enlisting was employed by Messrs. Downson and Spencer, near Airedale.

HELLWELL, Gunner Ernest, R.F.A. of 675, Manchester Road, Bradford, has died of wounds in a base hospital in France. He was the third son of Mr. F. Holdsworth, who has lived the Colours. One of his brothers (Herman Hellwell) lost a leg, and has been reported to be well in the fighting line. He was a widow and one child.

LEACH, Gunner Richard, Royal Garrison Artillery, whose wife and two children reside in Mount Street, Keighley, has been wounded in a base hospital in France. He was 23 years of age, and was previously employed by Messrs. Smith, Adolphus Street.

S. MARKS, Expert Manufacturing - Furrier. HIGH-QUALITY FURS AT REASONABLE PRICES. ESPECIALLY SUITABLE FOR XMAS GIFTS.

A WOMAN'S GOSSIP. By "ISABEL".

The Bradford Ladies' Needlework Guild. On Wednesday 1st, at a well-attended meeting of the above, held by the courtesy of the Society of Friends, in the Friends Meeting House, Fountain Street, the Lady Mayoress, Mrs. W. G. Foster, presided.

A GREAT ADVANCE. In health and fitness may be yours. The consciousness of looking well and feeling well with bright eye and clear head, freedom from aches and pains, with a sense of buoyancy and vigour.

WILLY, Gunner Charles, of the R.G.A., husband of Mrs. Bailey, of 18, Milton Road, Bradford, has been killed in action. He was 29 years of age, and prior to enlisting was a member of the R.G.A. He was wounded in action in France, and was reported to be well in the fighting line.

MADAME FAWCETT. FURS and FUR COATS. OF UNDENIABLE QUALITY AND SMARTNESS, also HIGH-CLASS TAILOR-MADE COSTUMES.

WHY ISN'T YOUR NAME ON A DUNLOP PINK FORM? This is a Pink Form Agreement ready for you to sign at your local agents if you own pneumatic tyres.