

THREE BROTHERS: ONE KILLED, ONE MISSING

Most sympathy will be felt with Mr. Dawson, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister. He had three sons, and was a member of the Royal Engineers.

PRIVATE DAVID BASTOW.

husband of Mrs. M. G. C. Dawson, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE FRED BASTOW.

The deceased soldier's brother, Mr. Fred Dawson, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

BURNLEY MAN WHO REJOINED

Mr. V. G. G. Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE G. V. VARLEY.

was a member of the Royal Engineers, and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister.

BURNLEY LANE SOLDIER WOUNDED

Mr. Monkman, of 41, Angle Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE G. L. MONKMAN.

was a member of the Royal Engineers, and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister.

BURNLEY-CANADIAN'S M.M.

Mr. P. W. Smith, of 10, The Park, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

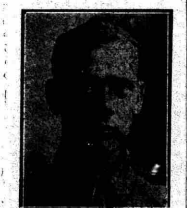

PRIVATE P. W. SMITH.

was a member of the Royal Engineers, and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister.

KILLED WHILE CARRYING A MESSAGE

Mr. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

FROM GAS POISONING

In hospital as the result of gas poisoning, Mr. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

MISSING AFTER AN ACTION

Mr. Harry Pollard, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE HARRY POLLARD.

was a member of the Royal Engineers, and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister.

BURNLEY WEAVER'S SERIOUS WOUNDS

Mr. George Higgin, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

GUNNER G. HIGGIN.

was a member of the Royal Engineers, and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister.

HOW TWO PALS LOST TOUCH

Mr. George Midgley, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE GEORGE MIDGLEY.

was a member of the Royal Engineers, and was over on furlough at Whitland, going to see his mother and sister.

OFFICIALLY REPORTED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

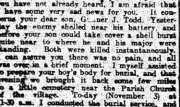

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

AN HONORED GUNNER

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

ROSEGROVE LAD SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

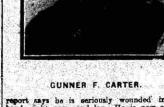

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

LANC-CORP. BROTHWOOD

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

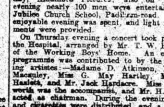

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

PADIHAM DRIVER'S SERIOUS WOUNDS

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

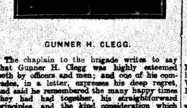

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

FORMERLY WOUNDED, AND NOW KILLED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

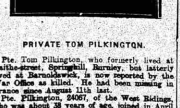

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

FORMERLY WOUNDED, AND NOW KILLED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

FORMERLY WOUNDED, AND NOW KILLED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

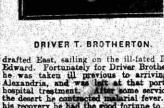

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

FORMERLY WOUNDED, AND NOW KILLED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

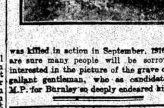

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

FORMERLY WOUNDED, AND NOW KILLED

Mr. G. W. G. Dawson, of 11, St. James Street, Burnley, who wrote under date November 13, that three sons of his had been killed or were missing.

PRIVATE E. DAWSON.

wounded on April 26 last, and some time ago, having gone back in August. He was a member of the Royal Engineers.

WELCO MILK SHORTAGE advertisement. Text: WELCO cocoa contains just a similar butter to the butter contained in fresh milk. It is most easily digested and very nourishing.

WELCO MILK SHORTAGE advertisement. Text: WELCO cocoa contains just a similar butter to the butter contained in fresh milk. It is most easily digested and very nourishing.

BLAIR'S GOUT advertisement. Text: The disease must be treated through the blood, and the only remedy is Blair's Gout Pills.

SILVER SHRED advertisement. Text: ROBERTSON'S LEMON MARMALADE. A delicious and healthy treat.

WHEN YOU ARE LIVERISH advertisement. Text: If you have a tendency to Liverishness, and feel languid, try Mother Selge's Syrup.

MOTHER SELGE'S SYRUP advertisement. Text: In a state of healthy activity, as a result you are able to digest what you eat.

ROTHWELL & CO. advertisement. Text: Customers and Ladies Tailors. Have always in Stock a choice selection of Black Costumes.

MARKET PLACE advertisement. Text: OPPOSITE MARKET ENTRANCE, BURNLEY. A list of legal documents.